Bill No. 46.

THE PROHIBITION (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1978

A

BILL

Further to amend the Prohibition Act, 1950.

Preamble.—WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Prohibition Act, 1950, for the purposes hereinafter appearing;

BE it enacted in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Republic of India as follows:

1. Short title and Commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Prohibition (Amendment) Act, 1978.

(2) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the 2nd day of October, 1977.

2. Amendment of Section 2.—In section 2 of the Prohibition Act, 1950, (XIII of 1950) (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act) for the brackets, words and figures "(except sections 1 and 7)", the brackets, words and figures, "(except sections 1, 7 and 11)" shall be substituted.

3. Amendment of Section 6.—In section 6 of the principal Act, in sub-section (2), for the words and figures "sections 1 and 7", in both the places where they occur, the words and figures "sections 1, 7 and 11" shall be substituted.

4. Insertion of new section 11.—After section 10 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"11. Prohibition of Advertisements.—(1) Whoever prints or publishes in any newspaper, book, leaflet, booklet or any other single or periodical publication or otherwise displays or distributes any advertisement or other matter commending, soliciting the use of or offering any liquor or intoxicating drug (other than liquor or drugs exempted under section 21), shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall apply—

(a) to plain catalogues and price lists which may be generally or specially approved by the Commissioner; or

(b) to advertisements in medical journals or to notices and literature circulated exclusively to members of the medical profession, if such advertisements, notices or literature relate to any liquor or intoxicating drug which has been specially approved as of medicinal value by any Medical Council established by or under any law for the time being in force in the territory of India or any part thereof; or

(c) to the normal circulation within the State of newspapers, periodicals and books printed and published in accordance with law outside the State.".

5. Repeal and Saving.—(1) The Prohibition (Amendment) Ordinance 1977 (18 of 1977), is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the principal Act as amended by the said Ordinance shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the principal Act as amended by this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Consequent on the lifting of prohibition, the operation of the provisions of the Prohibition Act, 1950, except sections 1, 7 and 11 was suspended by notification No. 7519/G3/67/RD. dated the 28th April, 1967, published as S.R.O. No. 104/67 in the Kerala Gazette Extraordinary No. 78 dated the 28th April, 1967. Section 2 of the Act under which the notification was issued did not empower the Government to suspend the operation of sections 1, 7 and 11.

2. Section 11 of the Act provided for punishment of persons publishing or otherwise displaying or distributing any advertisement on liquors or intoxicating drugs. With the lifting of prohibition, section 11 lost much of its relevancy and so that section was omitted by the Prohibition (Amendment) Act, 1973 (17 of 1973) . However, it was considered necessary to prohibit advertisements on liquors and intoxicating drugs and public inducements to drinks by re-introducing the said section in the Prohibition Act, 1950. A Bill for the above purpose was published in the Gazette during the last session of the Legislative Assembly. The intention was to get the Bill passed during the last session. But the Bill could not be introduced and passed during that session for want of time. It was considered that the amendments proposed in the Bill should be given effect to immediately without waiting for the next session of the Legislative Assembly. Accordingly, the Prohibition (Amendment) Ordinance, 1977, was promulgated by the Governor on the 1st day of October, 1977 and published as Ordinance No. 18 of 1977.

3. The Bill seeks to replace the Ordinance by an Act of the State Legislature.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

The Bill, if enacted and brought into operation, would not involve any expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of the State.
